

X marks the spot where glamour failed

It's no trouble to keep your clothes looking neat and fresh. The secret is: don't wait until they get really dirty before cleaning them. The back of the collar, elbows, cuffs, and waist front get soiled first and let you down.

Moisten a clean cloth with a little Thawpitt and go over these places thoroughly. Examine garments for any other soiled places, or grease marks, and remove them. Always remember, clean clothes last longest!

Thawpitt is easy to use. Just follow the directions on the bottle. It doesn't harm delicate fabrics or change colours, and it leaves no odour. It's safe to use anywhere, because it can't catch fire.

SPORTS TALK

MEMBERS of Hartlepool Golf Club are following with keen interest the good progress of their professional, S. S. Scott, in the big tournaments of the day.

A member of the R.A.F. since 1940, Scott has had few opportunities for practice during the past five years, yet he put up a really good performance at Fulwell last week, finishing only two strokes behind Henry Cotton.

After putting in only one practice round, he was due to play at St. Andrew's to-day in the £1,500 "Daily Mail" tournament, and local golfers are looking forward to another sound performance on his part.

P.T. TUTOR IN EGYPT

Physical training enthusiasts will be interested to know that one of the best known local instructors, David Bosworth, has been carrying on the good work during the war years as a sergeant p.t. instructor with the R.A.F. now stationed in Egypt.

Before he joined up in 1940, Sgt. Bosworth was p.t. instructor and sports coach at Rosebank High School, and held similar positions with the Boys' Welfare Club and at evening classes organized by the Education Committee. In a letter home he says he has always found a good response from airmen and W.A.A.F. personnel to physical training and sport, and he hopes to "return home soon and resume where I left off."

INJURIES SCHEME

Jim Price, left-half of Blackhall's Church League side, suffered a broken leg in the game with South Durham. It was the result of a pure accident, with no blame attached to anyone. Ironically enough, the Blackhall officials and players met just before the match to consider inaugurating a scheme for the benefit of players who might suffer injury. It was also their intention to join the D.F.A. Benevolent Fund, but they had had to put off doing so until initial expenses had been met. The league itself has also such a scheme in mind, and a committee was formed at the back end of last season to see what could be done about it. Pressure of work in other directions has prevented the secretarial staff piecing together the various suggestions, but the sooner something tangible is decided upon the better.

NAMING DANTE'S BROTHER

The buyers of yearlings at last week's Newmarket sales will soon be putting on their "thinking caps" to choose suitable names for their purchases. Under a new rule, which comes into operation next season, two-year-olds must be named before they will be able to run.

The public will be particularly interested in the name given to Dante's brother. Most would like to see a good English name, like previous purchases of the Gawkwar of Baroda, the colt will probably be given a name corresponding to an Eastern title meaning less to the man in the street. It is hoped that an exception will be made in his case.

GREYHOUND RECORD

Honours for recording the fastest time by a greyhound over the 325 yards course have been alternating between Wembley and White City.

The Wembley greyhound Magic Beau, ran the distance in 29.19 seconds at his home track earlier in the summer, setting a new time record. This was broken at White City recently by his litter brother, Magic Bohemian, with 29.11 seconds. Both were eclipsed on Monday, when a provincial greyhound, the County-trained Duffy's Arrival, clipped another fifth of a second when beating Magic Beau at Wembley in 29.09 seconds.

A 525 yards in 29.00 seconds now seems a distinct possibility.

Lost that nervous depression

"The nature of my work involves long hours and mental effort, but thanks to Phosferine Tablets I am able to keep fit and carry on. Prior to taking the tablets I was on the verge of a break-down, my nerves were giving way... I decided to give Phosferine Tablets a trial. To my amazement after about ten days I was losing that nervous depression, and found myself beginning to take my food better. I was also able to concentrate and put good energy into my task, without feeling tired or done up." (Signed) F.S., Gloucester.

People who have to do arduous and exacting work cannot afford to neglect warning signals of overstrain. If you tire easily, suffer from sleeplessness, or lost appetite, then Phosferine is surely indicated.

Suffered for years until mother began to give these blood-purifying herbs.
