JULY ROAD TOLL WAS HIGHER

ROAD deaths in July numbered 437, an increase of 25 over June, the Ministry of Transport announced to-day.

The total killed and injured rose from 13,832 in June to 15,177 in July, and the number of non-fatal injuries, particularly those classed as slight, was the highest in any month since 1941.

Accidents involving motor-cycles again accounted for more than 20 per cent of the total road fatalities.

While these increases are probably due to holiday traffic, which will continue, they are very disquieting, and call for much greater care on the part of the public," says the Ministry.

Public services and hackney vehicles were primarily concerned in accidents which caused deaths, motor-cycles in 88, goods vehicles in 76, pedal cycles in 70, and Service vehicles in 20.

Of the 174 pedestrians killed, 76 were children under 15. Seventy motor-cyclists, 13 pillion passengers, and 21 drivers of other vehicles died.

Of 139 cyclists killed, 62 were children under 15.

Museum Road Obstruction By Motorists

THIRTEEN motorists who parked their cars in Museum Road, West Hartlepool, on July 31, were each fined 10s. by West Hartlepool magistrates to-day for causing obstruction.

Supt. W. Cook said these motorists parked their cars in Museum Road on a night when the dog track was open. There had been complaints of cars being parked in this one-way street by people visiting the dog track, and last year he had warnings broadcast over the loud-speakers at the track. Adequate parking ground was available behind the Forum Cinema.

Capt. J. Farmer (a magistrate): If this is a one-way street, what are the cars obstructing?

Supt. Cook: They are obstructing the highway.

Capt. Farmer: What is an obstruction?

Supt. Cook: These motorists placed their cars on the highway unnecessarily for an unnecessary length of time.

Supt. Cook added that the road was 19 feet wide, and it

EX-ROVERS STAR Death of "Bobby" Roberts

The death has taken place at his home, 4 Meryl Gardens, West Hartlepool, of Mr. Robert Wake Roberts, former well-known Hartlepool Rovers' player.

"Bobby" Roberts, as he was affectionately known, was born at Hartlepool 73 years ago. After graduating with Hartlepool Old Boys in the days of Dr. "Bertie" Morison, he became a playing member of Hartlepool Rovers Club at the time when the Rovers were the pre-eminent club in the North. A boiler-maker by trade, Mr. Roberts served in the Royal Engineers during the 1914-18 war. His health suffered as a result of his war service, and he had been unable to work since.

Mr. Roberts, who was a Freemason and a member of St. Helen's Lodge, leaves a widow and one daughter.

AN APPRECIATION

We append an appreciation by John O'Hugh, local Rugby supporters will mourn the passing of "Bobby" Roberts. I look to an abler pen to tell of his skill and prowess as a footballer. I only speak of him as I found him. But I have vivid memories of his playing days, seeing him bounding down the field with the swiftness of a hart to score a try.

Now we salute him, "Bobby" has touched down for the last time in the great game of life. Little wonder, that on such a holy ground as the Frithgate, friendships were formed, which became more sacred to him as they grew older. As a true sportsman he drew a wealth of attachment from Rovers "fans."

Early influences moulded the man: With such playing colleagues as "Bob" Oakes, "Franky" Horsley, Mag. Irvin, and E. Skinner, all having under the influence of Dr. "Bertie" Morison, we are reminded that great friendships and noble thoughts make men seem a part of the very world.

To those nearest and dearest to him, may they find comfort in these lines of the poet:

Those who are gone you have, Those who departed loving you, love you still: And you love them always.

Thrift from Ship

Stated to have been caught bringing a tin of salmon, a tin of soup, and a quantity of rice from the s.s. Crackshot, berthed in Union Dock, Robert Douglas Scott, 280 Green Lane, South Shields, was fined by West Hartlepool magistrates to-day for stealing the articles. He was said to be a member of the crew of the ship.

Six Dead In Egypt Plane Crash

Cairo Monday.-A British captain and an American newspaper correspondent were among the five passengers killed when an Avro Anson plane of an Egyptian air line made a forced landing and caught fire 33 miles from Almazra aerodrome on Saturday night.

The dead passengers included Capt. R. L. Malone, a British, and Mr. William Price, correspondent of the American magazine "Time." Two other passengers were injured.-Reuter.

Still be smart. The secret is, don't ever let them get really grimy - backs of collars, lapels, and cuffs can all be cleaned safely and easily at home.

Simply get to work on all these tell-tale places with a little Thawpitt on a clean cloth. Look out for any other soiled spots. Finally, always give the garment a good brushing.

Thawpitt is easy to use. (Follow the directions.) It can't harm the delicate fabrics or colours.

New Laid Eggs?

Five birds, owned by Mr. H.L.K. of Manchester, were doing nicely - producing up to 30 eggs a week. Then business took him away - and he returned to find production down to only 14 eggs a week. He writes: "I put it down to the cold spell, but I also found that my wife had run out of Kewwood Poultry Soap. I got some more, and egg-production went up again. I got Kewwood Poultry Soap (containing iodine) from Corn Dealers in pints, 7d. & 1/3d. Try a packet today."

I'm doing very well!
