

Boots
BRITISH LYSOL
USES AND DIRECTIONS

PREPARED FROM PRODUCTS
OF A HIGH DEGREE OF PURITY
CAREFULLY SELECTED FOR THE PURPOSE.

Directions

	Page
For Sterilising Hands	12
2 small teaspoonfuls to each pint of water (warm)
For Douches	7
1 teaspoonful to 2½ pints of water (warm)
As a Deodorant	8
Half teaspoonful to each pint of water (warm)
For the Bath	9
1 teaspoonful to each gallon of water
For Spittoons, Bed-pans, Closets, Drains, Sinks	9
2 tablespoonfuls to each pint of water
For Cuts, Wounds, Burns, and Bites	10
2 teaspoonfuls to each pint of water (warm)

DIRECTIONS—continued

	Page
For Infected Wounds, Etc...	10
2 small teaspoonfuls to each pint of water (warm)
For Sterilising Surgical Instruments	11
4 tablespoonfuls to each pint of water (Half hour)
For Infected Linen	12
1 tablespoonful to each pint of water
For Woodwork and Floors...	10
1 tablespoonful to each quart of water

The manufacture of BOOTS BRITISH LYSOL is carried out under strict analytical and bacteriological control. Every batch complies with BOOTS high standard of purity and Boots The Chemists guarantee their BRITISH LYSOL to be :

- (1) of high germicidal value;
- (2) of standard strength;
- (3) in compliance with the tests for purity and strength for LYSOL as laid down in the British Pharmacopoeia.

BOOTS BRITISH LYSOL contains 50% (half its volume) of Cresol, B.P. selected to give a

The Soap in Boots British Lysol has a distinct cleansing action