Yesterday's Chapters

When Jean arrives, Tanis wel-comes her warmly and learns that her friend has travelled with the new doctor. Herve la Sele is immedi-ately attracted to Tanis, and Kerry notices this, but although outwardly he is indifferent, he cannot forget that evening when he and Tanis were gogether.

RRY was disliking himself pretty badly these days, and taking it out and sundry. Pacing his room one ag a fortnight after their return Geneva he made up his mind at last gue the thing out with himself and done with

Muriel 50 messy Nelly-so neat

Muriel says no-one ever pays her compliments, while her neighbour Nelly is the centre of attraction. Why? For one reason, Nelly takes oride in her appearance. A weekly do? with Thawpit keeps her clothes clean and neat. Even if they tre well-worn they never look drab

THAWPIT

Chow the WAR

TRY A COURSE OF

GIVES FRESH LIFE TO YOUR CLOTHES

of his health

Tanis and Herve? Kerry finds he doesn't like the idea!

ntained.

compliments and thanks for you collaboration.—Herve la Sele."

from the card to the flowers, Taniear a tap on the door.

"said Jean. "I didn't know you

Searing Jealousy

CHANGING the subject, Jean said—" I came to remind you, in case you'd overlooked anything so important, that Mrs
Maretta is going out for the first time

attr. is good and the state of the state of

of 2" Dr Driscoll. Wouldn't you think that a d-boiled one like our Kerry would be er than to encourage anything like

Children's

boys and gris who won last week's Jumbled Words coinpetition:—
MENDING SET—Dorothea Brisbane,
Ward 1-2, Ashludie Sanatorium,
Monifieth,
PURSE—Sylvie Newton, 24 Crewe Tce.,

PURSE—Sylvie Newton, 24 Crewe Tce., Pilton, Edinburgh PUCK PAINTS—Mary Holman, 16 Baffin Street, Dundee. TANK—George Bisset, 12 Robert Street, Arbroath. CONJURING SET—Donald Greig, 35 Thistle Street, Kirkcaldy, BIG GAME SHOOTING—Ronnie Burrows, 14 Balgillo Rd., Broughty Ferry.

Burrows, 14 Pagents
Ferry,
BOOKS—Phyllis Orrock, 9a Ruthven
Avenue, Perth, and James M'Killop,
26 Kinghorne Road, Dundee.
Well done, children! Look out for another grand prize competition in to-morrow's Corner.
Lots of love, from
AUNT JOAN.

23152
Olivia Fortuna, 48 Rossbank Street,
Dundes,—Thank you for your nice letter, Olivia, Fin delighted to welcome you to the Corner, and your number is 23163,

* * *
A PIRATE BRAVE AND BOLD,
WHEN I grow up I think I'll be
A pirate, brave and bold,
And sail the seas with all my men
To rob ships of their gold.

And if you're feeling hungry
And want some jam or cake,
You only need to shout for cook
And tell him what to make.

But mummie says a pirate chief Is a horrid, horrid man, So I think instead Pll stay at home And help mums all I can.

up.
an hesitated, then said—"Well, she's crazy about him. Any fool can see that, when little Clelia wants a thing she out for it red-headed. And is she

A Lesson For Kerry

SHE had just finished her regular morning inspection when, on her way back, you so much for your I felt almost as if I

Answers To "Can You To

4-39.4 inches.

5-St Swithin.

6-Decayed vegetable mal

PRINTED LINOL CARPETS

Now available from In the following si.
3 yds. x 3 yds.
3 yds. x 3½ yds.
3 yds. x 4 yds.
3 yds. x 4

RICHARD BUIST & 100-108 COMMERCIAL DUNDEE. Phone 6118.

This star ARMOUR foretells a bright future

ARMOUR & COMPANY LED., LONDON AND GLASCO

Image © D.C.Thomson & Co. Ltd. Image created courtesy of THE BRITISH LIBRARY BOARD