THE PRACTICAL GARDENER

THE SCENTS OF A FEBRUARY GARDEN

In this column practical advice is given every week on gardening and its problems. All types of garden—and all types of problem—come under consideration. The writer will be glad to answer inquiries.

stone statue makes a charming corner piece in the small garden

LATEST BEAUTY NOTE: YOUNG AND OLD NOW BLANCH THEIR TEETH

FRAGRANT HONEYSUCKLE Two winter-flowering honeysucklesLonicera fragrantissima and L. Standish

The Practical Gardener.

From a Correspondent.

The Times (London, England), Wednesday, Feb 01, 1939; pg. 19; Issue 48218. (957 words)

Category: Arts and Entertainment

© Times Newspapers Limited

Gale Document Number: CS318977089